Your Dreams Can a Duraclean Service

You have a more enjoyable career
...and you can start full or part time

Hundreds of men—previously working for salaries or wages—now enjoy greatly increased incomes, personal independence, and secure futures as owners of a low-investment, high-profit, lifetime business

Unthinking men may tell you that the day is past when an individual can build a successful business of his own. The fact is that service businesses have opened a new world of opportunity. The “mama and papa” grocery store and the corner druggist have succumbed to the gigantic chains. But, in their place, an exciting new kind of business offers big profit opportunities for the individual.

For twenty years the “service industry” has grown with fantastic speed. Let the chains have the retail store business. Even a small service business providing an unusual service can bring profits to the individual that were unheard of in the old days.

What is the difference? Just this: Chain stores operate under the same plan; under the same well-known name; but are owned by one corporation. In franchising, the individual uses tested and proven plans for starting his business and building it; he operates under a

Become a Reality with Business

Nationally Advertised and well-known name, he has step by step guidance but he owns the business. He enjoys the advantages of a chain, but he keeps all the profits for himself.

With a Duraclean Service Dealership, there is no store to rent. No fixtures to buy. No inventory or stock of goods to pay for. And, no special education or experience is needed. Men of almost every educational level have made outstanding successes with the "know-how" furnished by our Company.

They've worked from their homes, as these services are rendered on the customer's premises. Usually, the portable equipment is carried in their car trunk until profits pay for their first truck. A cash outlay of only $2188 puts them in business, and the company will finance the balance of the total $6500 cost, without interest or finance charges.

You have a modern method of cleaning and reviving color and resilience of carpets, rugs, upholstered furniture and auto interiors. It has visible superiority over the old ways of harsh scrubbing, strong detergents, and power driven brushes. Independent laboratory tests show that the Duraclean "Absorption Method" removes twice as much dirt and soil as machine scrubbing. And everything is dry, ready to use in a few hours.

You have six other superior services. The Duraclean processes have proved so superior that Duraclean Services are now available worldwide.

Who are your customers? Homes, hotels, motels, schools, shops, stores, offices, theaters, hospitals, institutions.

Your future? You can start with a big operation . . . or many start alone or with only 1 or 2 servicemen. Each can render

Dreams of others have come true

"I'm now on an income level I never thought possible working for others, with my limited educational background."

G. M. Burns, Fla.

"I've never seen anything build as fast or as well as this dealership. The first year, I made more money than in my previous high salary job."

Fred Williams, La.

"The largest Duraclean job I've had was for 26 condominiums. Took 8 days and paid me $2,780. I now employ 2 full time servicemen."

up to $125 service (often more) in a day. As you add servicemen, your profits climb sharply . . . and we furnish and pay for their equipment.

Start full time . . . or spare time adding your business profit to job salary until your business income warrants full time.

If you've ever wanted to "some day" own your own business you should investigate now, TODAY. The Duraclean Opportunity is fully explained in a 24-page book. It will be mailed free to any person who is sincerely interested in a future of security and independence. Just mail the coupon for full details. No salesman will call on you.

We'll help you with financing, up to twice your cash investment, and with nearly fifty years of experience showing men how to make their dreams become realities. It costs you nothing to investigate and does not place you under the slightest obligation. Isn't this something you should do for yourself? Today?

EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Peter
King
Editor-in-Chief

When a wrestler retires, often his bad deeds seem to magically vanish from the public's memories. No matter how cruel or vicious this man was during his grappling days, once he stops competing only pleasant memories of him remain.

This is how a man who was noted for brutality becomes remembered for "his exciting style." Or how a wrestler who ruthlessly crippled opponents sparks memories of being an "aggressive competitor."

Perhaps this is why Buddy Rogers was given a hero's welcome on his return to wrestling. Memories of his brutal wrestling style were softened by thoughts of the Golden Age of Wrestling--an age in which Rogers was the sport's brightest star. Anybody who dared suggest that Rogers was a terrible man was shouted down by cries of "Buddy's changed" or "Give him some time."

Well, for a few weeks anyway, Rogers showed the fans he could wrestle scientifically. And everyone forgot the man's ugly past. He was accepted as a fan favorite, no questions asked.

Now everyone knows the truth about Rogers. He is an evil, vile human being. He can no more change his style than an alligator can learn to sing opera.

Here is a brief list of what Rogers has done since his return to wrestling: He has turned Jimmy Snuka, a great scientific favorite, into a bloodlusting maniac; He has sneak-attacked Rick Steamboat on at least three occasions; He has vowed to turn Blackjack Mulligan and Ric Flair back into rulebreakers; He has become the most hated man in the history of Mid-Atlantic wrestling. And remember, all this occurred in less than three months!

Next time a wrestler retires, don't forget about his past.

I WAS IN the hallway leading to the Madison Square Garden dressing rooms, speaking to several wrestlers. Generally, I don't like hassling men before they do battle. But there was no particular story. I was merely sniffing around, poking my head here and there. Sometimes it unearths a story. Sometimes it doesn't.

This time the story was so obvious it nearly knocked me out. Believe it or not, Bruno Sammartino and Dusty Rhodes had never met. Ever. That's a bit paused and spoke to a friend.

Coming from the left side was Dusty Rhodes. Noise always follows Dusty. No one in the hall could have failed to see or hear Rhodes. Everyone glanced up. Except Bruno.

I was puzzled. I'd never heard of any animosity between them. Yet they'd never wrestled. And they ignored each other in the hallway. I asked a few wrestlers about it. No one believed they disliked each other. One wrestler, who wanted anonymity, said there was a

Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair Start your own money

BEAT INFLATION!

Cash in on the huge demand for small engine repair.

Work part time, full time right at home - we help you every step of the way.

making business!

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America...an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour...and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

46-million small engines are in service today!

That's right—there are over forty-six million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Homeowners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers...the list is almost endless.

No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated—so clear you can't go wrong.

You receive trade secrets and business plans.

We guide you every step of the way, including tested and proven instructions on how to get business, what to charge, how to get free advertising, where to get supplies wholesale...all the "tricks of the trade"...all the inside facts you need to assure success right from the start.

Increased Income

"I've had about 8 years experience repairing small engines...but repairs were only minor...until I started the Belsaw Course."

TOP SECRET

Behind the Dressing Room Door

by Stu
Saks

LET ME TELL you, things can get rather dull in the Madison Square Garden dressing room before the start of a wrestling card. Managing editor Bill Apter and I always arrive early to snap some photographs and grab some interviews. But after that's all done, it's mostly a lot of standing around and taking drinks from the water fountain.

Oh, but not last month. Last month I found something to keep me occupied. But I almost lost my life at the same time.

There she was, just sitting there in the dressing room corridor looking as bored as I was. She was an incredibly beautiful woman. Mid-twenties, blonde hair, beautiful face, a Charlie's Angels figure. I knew I had to talk to her. All I needed was an opening line.

I went over and took a drink from the water fountain. I needed time to think of something to say.

When I turned in her direction again, I noticed that she was thumbing through the latest copy of INSIDE WRESTLING. My break! I walked over slowly and sat beside her on the bench.

"Oh, I see you've got the latest issue of INSIDE WRESTLING?" (How's that for a classy opening?)

"Yes," she said, "it's quite good." (She was referring to the magazine, not my line.)

Fortunately, she was quite talkative.

"I work for 'La Vie,' a brand new woman's magazine and I've been assigned to do an article on professional wrestling. I'm waiting for a wrestler to come out of the dressing area so I could do an interview. I'm kind of nervous . . . Oh, my name is Elizabeth."

"I'm Stu. Pleased to meet you." I gently shook her hand as I gazed

THE INSIDER

By STEVEN FARHOOD

SCOOP OF THE MONTH

Ernie Ladd will retire from wrestling by mid-1980! I just confirmed this incredible rumor after a long telephone conversation with "The Big Cat."

"I can't take it any more," the behemoth said. "Steve, I want you to tell the people that I've had enough of this crummy, ugly business. Too many young cowards runnin' around ruinin' my sport. After watchin' these baby yellow-bellies like Rich, DiBiase, and Brunzell, I'm through. There's no place in wrestling for a genius of my class and royalty. The king is saying, 'later' to this slimy business."

But why such a sudden change in the rulebreaker's attitude? Ladd has not declined as an athlete. His record remains awesome.

"Lemme tell ya 'bout it, Stevie boy," he continued. "I found a real nice little place, sort of a Garden of Eden, down in South America. It's in the mountains, daddy, in the mountains they call the Andes."

"I found a little spot, couldn't hold more than 100 people. I think in Argentina. Anyway, I can bring all my money there and live in peace. The natives realize my greatness. They will work as my slaves. All I will do is read the novels of James Joyce and get off on that mountain air."

The life, daddy, the real life."

Amazing, but true. Ladd seems sincere. I've heard him lie (most of the time) and I've heard him preach the truth (rarely). He meant what he told me on the phone.

I know there are thousands of fans who will rejoice and dance in the streets when Ernie Ladd leaves wrestling. There are also dozens of wrestlers who will have reason to celebrate. But the squared circle won't be the same without the dangerous number 99 patrolling with his unique brand of violence. I hope you change your mind, Big Cat. Some of us out here still appreciate you.

INSIDE WRESTLING has learned that Ernie Ladd will hang up the boots in the mid-'80s. He feels that the sport is below him now.

RUMOR VS. FACT

RUMOR: Las Vegas entertainment impresario Jerry "Hotchacha" Chessler has offered Dusty Rhodes $500,000 for a one-week engagement as a hotel night club act! Dusty would sing, dance, and do impersonations of wrestling rulebreakers.

FACT: Rhodes has been flooded with night club offers for several years. Producers in Hollywood, Las Vegas, and New York realize his tremen-

Richard Petty says, "If you really want to learn how to repair cars, check out NRI home training."

They give you all the training and equipment you need to get you started in a hurry.

My Dad made auto mechanics out of us long before he'd let us enter a race...so early on I learned the importance of being a good mechanic...and why good training is important. That's why I'm sure glad to see these two NRI courses come along. With NRI, you learn at home in your spare time, at your own pace. And you get solid, "hands-on" training for practical experience. It's a lot of training for the money.

Learn Auto Servicing Fast

NRI's Professional Repair Course covers the basics of auto repair in 30 "bite-size" lessons. From headlight to taillight, you'll learn all you need to know, quickly. Your course includes important service equipment at no extra charge...an inductive pickup DC timing light, ignition analysis and tune-up instrument, tune-up tool kit, and more.

Professional Mechanic's Training

NRI's 51-lesson Master Automotive Technician Course includes what you need to be a real pro. In addition to carefully planned lessons, you receive all the equipment in the Basic Course plus a carburetor air-fuel tester, silent vacuum test pump, and the latest advance in diagnostic tools, a digital read-out tune-up analyzer. It performs over 70 tests and gives you the answers in precise, LCD numbers

...no need to approximate or interpret scope displays. You'll learn to service electronic ignition systems, vacuum controls, pollution control systems, fuel injection systems, auto air conditioning, brakes, and much more.

Train with the Leaders — NRI and McGraw-Hill

No other school has NRI's experience in home training or McGraw-Hill's background in continuing education. Body Slams & Pinfalls

By Dan Shocket

THERE IS NO one to blame. There is only sorrow for what might have been.

When John and Jerry Valiant joined manager Lou Albano, it seemed we would be entering a new golden era in tag team wrestling. This superb duo flowered under the guidance of a brilliant manager. No one was surprised when their combined efforts resulted in earning the WWF tag team title. It seemed no one could stop them.

No one could. The tragedy of the Valiant brothers is that they may destroy themselves.

Everyone cites the Albano run-in incident as the beginning of the end, but that was only the tip of the iceberg. (A full account of this incident is described in this issue, written by Albano himself). The real reasons behind the flare-up and probable disintegration of the alliance are far more complex than a proud Albano will admit.

To understand fully, we first must understand the Valiants. In their world, there are only Valiants and people you don't trust. Even Albano, whose history with the Valiants goes back years, has never been admitted to the family's inner circle. As Jim Valiant once said, "I've got my brothers. I don't need anyone else. A wrestler can't afford to be friendly with those he doesn't need."

Lou Albano fit in with the brothers because he, too, needs no man. While he and the Valiants may appear friendly in public, in reality their partnership was strictly business. As such, they were incredibly successful.

Yet, they are all willful men. The Valiants believe they know what's best for themselves. Albano believes he knows what's best for his teams. Sooner or later, they had to clash.

Neither the Valiants nor Albano wanted this rift. Still, it was almost inevitable. As Albano said in a quieter moment, "I'll take the Valiants over any other team. A manager can expect to see maybe 75 percent of what he devises actually executed by his team. With the Valiants, I've seen my plans reach perfection. Perfection! I should be the happiest manager alive. I'm not. Somehow, they stick to my plans exactly but I don't feel right about it. It's like they devour my ideas and make them their own. I can't understand it. I damn well don't like it!"

The Valiants, John (kneeling) and Jerry, are uneasy about the fact that they are at their best with Albano, not on their own.

TAKE CONTROL

Dare I congratulate you on your magazines THE WRESTLER and INSIDE WRESTLING? Well, on the whole it is not a bad job that the lot of you do. Except for Dan Shocket's column "Body-slams and Pinfalls" which is downright ludicrous, and Matt Brock's tendency to hit the bottle too often.

I find myself constantly frustrated by the lack of teeth displayed by the WWF, AWA, and NWA in their inability to sufficiently administer fair punishment to those who make a mockery of the rules laid down by the three organizations.

Several times in your past publications you have asked if certain wrestlers should be banned, such as Bulldog Brower, Greg Valentine, and The Sheik. After asking fans to write in their opinions, it seems the whole matter is left there. No further news is heard about these creatures and their futures. I agree it is not right to ban a man from earning his living but for the sake of others in the sport, it must be done. Men who are not all there, those who insist on maiming and crippling others, do not belong in a sport as great as wrestling. This must be realized, not just acknowledged, and something must be done.

It is about time that your Big Brass in these federations drew the line and applied a rigid control to those causing the trouble. We cannot allow sneaky, slimy worms like Bobby Heenan, the Grand Wizard, Lou Albano, and others to stomp all over everything good about the sport. The scientific wrestlers are doing their bit. Now wake up and do yours!

ROBYN FOORD
Christchurch, New Zealand

SOMETHING MUST BE DONE

I live in Winnipeg, Canada, where recently we had a match in which Nick Bockwinkel defended his title against Greg Gagne. Again, Bockwinkel did something that made me furious. He threw Gagne into the referee and then threw him over the top rope. The ref was knocked out so he could not disqualify him. Then Nick revived the ref, who counted Gagne out. I wish something could be done about that!

GREG VALENTINE hopes to return to the Mid-Atlantic area soon with one purpose in mind—to persuade RIC FLAIR to return to the “rulebreaking fraternity.”

In an exclusive interview, Valentine said, “Ric needs some guidance at this point in his career. I hope I can steer him in the right direction so he can assist me with breaking the legs of guys like RICK STEAMBOAT and that traitor BLACKJACK MULLIGAN. I have already contacted my good friend JIMMY SNUKA and his manager BUDDY ROGERS and they’re hoping they might even be able to help me bring Ric back to his senses.”

By the way, KEN PATERA has lost his Mid-Atlantic title to JIM BRUNZELL. However, Patera claims he gave the championship to Jim “on a silver platter.”

“I didn’t need that hunk of tin,” he added. “All I am interested in is BOB BACKLUND and that World Wrestling Federation belt around his puny waist. Backlund, I am after your belt—and your life, too, buddy. You’re finished!”

BRUISER and THE SHEIK are back at war with each other in Detroit. The two had teamed on occasion recently but just couldn’t keep it going. Their hatred is much stronger for each other than it is for any team they faced . . . “Continental Lover” EDDY MANSFIELD wants to be rated number one in a new category. He suggests we add to our ratings “Most Beautiful Wrestlers.” Modest guy, isn’t he!

MR. WRESTLING II has a new mission: He wants to rid Georgia of BOBBY HEENAN. “The man is a disease,” II says. “He spreads his sick mindless germs all over the wrestling scene here in Georgia. Well I’m gonna find a cure and get rid of this germ once and for all!”

DICK MURDOCH says he is being “shafted” by the National Wrestling Alliance. “They ain’t give me a title match against HARLEY RACE since I gave him a good whuppin’ some time ago,” he says. “There has got to be a reason.” An NWA spokesman told us when Dick deserves another title shot—they’ll be the first to let him know! . . . THE SAMOANS are headed to the WWF. We hear they’re after the tag team championship and are talented enough to capture it . . . “Big Cat” ERNIE LADD is in Georgia and is making life miserable for Tommy RICH. Ladd sneak attacks Rich during Tommy’s matches almost on a regular basis. “I have two guys I have to watch out for,” Tommy points out, “my opponent and Ladd. It’s damn hard concentrating on my opponent when I have got to worry about Ladd jumping in and attacking me.” Tommy has got one big problem on his hands!

JESSE VENTURA is climbing the AWA ratings ladder . . . AWA

N' NEWS

Bill Apter reporting...

MARK LEWIN

champion NICK BOCKWINKEL is negotiating with Japanese promoters, hoping for a stint in Japan... The bloody war between MARK LEWIN and TOR KAMATA continues in Texas... DAVID and KEVIN VON ERICH, along with brother KERRY, are mapping out a world tour... CAPTAIN LOU ALBANO says he is happier now that the VALIANT BROTHERS are "not my problem."

Negotiations have been started regarding a possible match between DUSTY RHODES and WWF champion BOB BACKLUND. No details yet but we'll keep you posted. We can tell you that the possibilities of this match are quite good as there is a man with a lot of financial backing willing to pay whatever it costs to get the match signed.

TONY ATLAS left the WWF after a brief visit and has returned to the Mid-Atlantic area... BOBBY DUNCUM is calling BRUNO SAMMARTINO yellow. "The guy is chicken to rattle me," Duncum claims. "I beat him so many times, he shakes like a leaf whenever he hears my name mentioned!"... MIL MASCARAS says he has a shocking announcement that he will reveal to the world in about a month or so. There is a tight lid on this one as no one on our staff could find out what it is.

The unusual duo of RAY STEVENS and MIKE GRAHAM have taken the Florida tag team title from MR. HITO and MR. SAKURADA as this issue went to press. The reason I call the Stevens-Graham team unusual is that Ray is a noted rulebreaker and Mike is a real good clean scientific star. MR. HATORI, manager of the Japanese duo, reports that Stevens and Graham wrestled viciously and took the belts illegally. "Stevens has taught Graham what it is like to be a real rulebreaker," Hatori says. "But he didn't have to teach him too much because we all know Graham is a dirty sneaky rulebreaker anyway, don't we!"

Another great team to talk about is the pair of IVAN PUTSKI and TITO SANTANA. Their styles complement each other and big things are coming their way... SIR OLIVER HUMPERDINK is now the manager of BUGSY MCGRAW... PAMPERO FIRPO is looking great in his recent Michigan outings... STAN HANSEN is back to using his "lariat" on a full-time basis. Says Stan, "Some of these dudes in Georgia need their necks broken. There's no holdin' back with my lariat anymore!"

SANTANA & PUTSKI

That's all for now. See you next month! □

COLLECTOR'S CORNER

WRESTLING MAGAZINE

It was simply titled "WRESTLING." And it was the first serious attempt to establish a magazine devoted entirely to professional wrestling which had a regular frequency and a world-wide distribution. The five issues of WRESTLING magazine are perhaps the most sought-after collector's back issues now made available to you.

MARCH 1951—Human Side, Wrestling Whirl, How to Wrestle, New Faces, Popularity Ratings, Strangler Lewis' Life, Sumo Wrestling, Yukon Eric's Life, Wrestler vs. Boxer, Strong Arms, June Byers' Life, George Hackenschmidt vs. Frank Gotch $30

BOXING & WRESTLING

After five issues, WRESTLING magazine changed its name to BOXING & WRESTLING. Continuing its high standard in wrestling, the addition of boxing stories made it one of the most popular sports magazines of the '50s. Some of the back issues listed in this ad can be obtained now by the general public for the first time in more than 25 years. As you would expect, supplies are very, very limited.

Some of the back issues in this ad have not been offered for sale for more than 25 years. All of these extremely rare magazines are from the personal collection of Stanley Weston, owner of the world's largest collection of wrestling memorabilia. This is indeed a once in a lifetime opportunity for the true collector to finally own these highly treasured but until now elusive editions. Obviously, the supplies of these issues are very limited, and they will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. It is for that reason we urge you to list substitute choices when you order. This will avoid time wasted writing back and forth should a particular issue be sold out. The prices quoted are based on the rarity of the issue and the amount of available copies. For fastest service, payment should be made by money order or certified check. While cash will be accepted, we cannot assume responsibility when it is sent through the mails. All sales are final and no exchanges will be made.

WRESTLING REVUE

WRESTLING REVUE (1959-1964) is thought to be the finest series of wrestling magazines ever published. These beautiful editions (all edited and published by Stanley Weston) set a standard by which all of today's wrestling magazines are judged. The magnificent back issues in this ad, many of which contain spectacular full-color inserts, have been unavailable to the public for more than 10 years.
 Supplies of these collector's treasures are very limited.

Fall 1959
 The first issue, edited and published by Stanley
 Weston, established a new style for wrestling magazines. This classic first issue, printed on heavy, coated paper, contains eight pages of full color pictures, plus front and back covers,
 also in dazzling full color.
 Fifteen years ago, this extremely rare issue was being sold for $50 per

HAS TOMMY RICH SHOWN THE WORLD HOW TO DEFEAT HARLEY RACE?

HIS FRIEND HAD a weekend pass, so they met for beers at the local tavern. "You don't know how much I appreciate this," the wrestler said to the Marine lieutenant.

"Hey," the lieutenant said, raising his mug, "if it means that you can knock off that Race cat, I think it's worth the risk."

The wrestler's name is Tommy Rich. The lieutenant shall remain anonymous. Certainly, he would not remain lieutenant very long if the Marine Corps was aware of what he and Rick were doing.

"One more for the road and we split?" the lieutenant asked Rich.

"It's your show, buddy," replied Rich. "I'm ready when you are."

Rich threw a couple of dollars on the bar and followed his friend out the door.

It was a short walk to Neil's Gym on George Street. The lieutenant knocked three times on the door and it was opened by a 6-5 muscleman, who left the building as he let the two men in. "Thanks, Frank," the lieutenant said.

Except for the two men, the

HOTSEAT

TERRY FUNK:

"WHY YOU SHOULD LOVE ME AND HATE DUSTY RHODES"

INTERVIEW CONDUCTED BY MATT BROCK

HE WAS ONCE NWA champion. Of all the figures of the past 10 years, he has been among the most controversial wrestlers. If anything, his trademark is his fierce independence. He takes no backtalk. He will permit no compromising of his rugged principles. He does what he wants to do and ignores the consequences. He doesn't care what his fellow wrestlers say. He doesn't care what the press says. He doesn't care what the fans say. He is his own man, pure and simple. He is Terry Funk.

He says he's from Texas. Bunk. He may be from Texas but he deserted his home state. Real Texans don't do that. Cowards like Dusty Rhodes desert their home.

Q: Terry, we've got a lot to say.
A: Hey, I haven't seen you in a long time, Brock.
Q: I was at the last Rhodes-Race match.

A: So was I.
Q: Want to talk about it?
A: What?
Q: The attack on Rhodes.
A: Hey, old man, don't put it like that.
Q: How would you expect it to be put? You ran into the ring and attacked Rhodes with your belt. You broke his arm. You can't deny that.
A: I'm leaving. (Rises)
Q: Go.
A: No, not without responding to you, old man. (Sits)
Q: So?
A: I did what I had to do. I don't like Dusty Rhodes. For one thing, he's a liar.

Race has lost his guts. I'll concede he once had courage, but no more. The years have taken their toll, wrestling night after night.

Q: What about?

A: He says he's from Texas. Bunk. He may be from Texas, but he deserted his home state. Real Texans don't do that. Cowards like Dusty Rhodes desert their home. Cowards like Dusty Rhodes have to use weapons to fight instead of their bare hands. Rhodes is a disgrace to the honorable name of Texas and I want to distinguish between true Texans like the Funks and garbage like Rhodes.

Q: Is that why you did it?

A: I protected the honor of Texas.

Q: By attacking Rhodes with a belt?

A: Hey, Brock, wanna see me protect the honor of Texas on you?

Q: Save your breath, Funk. You want an interview or you want to play games?

A: Revenge is also a Texan's point of honor. Rhodes has bad-mouthed my people. He has disgraced the title, for as little as he could hold it. How long did he have it, five days, something like that? What a joke! When a Texan wins a title, he holds it. That's why you should love me and hate Dusty Rhodes. A traitor and coward like Rhodes hasn't the guts or constitution to keep the belt.

Q: But Race wasn't pleased with your act of revenge, either.

A: Harley Race is slow, man. You help a guy out and he climbs on your case. Shows his lack of character. Race is a dull-wit. Here I risk my butt to . . .

Q: Did you do this for him?

A: No, I didn't do it for Race.

Q: So why should he appreciate your efforts?

A: Because the chump's the champ. Race has lost his guts. I'll concede he once had courage, but no more. The years have taken their toll, wrestling night after night. Holding on to the belt requires a lot and you damn well better have staying power. Race is all worn down. He's afraid. You can see it in his eyes. Race is over-the-hill.

Q: How would you rate the current wrestlers?

A: Soft.

Q: How so?

A: People ain't willing to get down to it and fight for what they believe in. Too many are worried about their image. Hah, image. Your image should be the reflection in the mirror every night. That's the only image you should worry about. And then they worry about the press and fans. What does it matter? No fan gets into the ring and gets his face knocked from here to India and back. We do.

Q: Is it so easy to shrug off the flack?

A: Course not. I'd be lying if I said otherwise. It bothers you some when people criticize you. But you can't let it influence you. A wrestler has to do what he feels is right. No one can make the decision for you.

Q: How did you go about deciding to jump into the ring that night in Orlando?

A: I didn't.

Q: What do you mean you didn't?

A: I just acted. Intellectual mush-heads think and plot and plan. All they end up doing is beating the air with their useless words. A Texan acts, period and pronto, buster. I felt I had to do it and I did.

Q: You proud?

A: Damn straight I'm proud. Why shouldn't I be?

Q: Some people would call it a cowardly act.

A: Them people don't have men like Race and Brisco crawling

I want the title back. It's obvious to anyone with a little sense that I'm the best in the NWA. Fatso Rhodes ain't got the stayin' power to hold it, that's for sure.

upside their backs. Those people don't have to fend off cheap shots and disarm cowards who bring foreign objects into the ring. Those people you talk about don't have a great and glorious family tradition to uphold.

Q: That sums up your feelings for critics.

A: Guess so.

Q: What's next for Terry Funk?

A: I want the title back. It's obvious to anyone with a little sense that I'm the best in the NWA. Fatso Rhodes ain't got the stayin' power to hold it, that's for sure. And Race is sliding faster and faster downhill. The Briscos are bums and the new kids ain't got it inside. Who's left but Terry Funk and, of course, Dory Jr.

Q: Terry, thanks for the interview.

A: Anytime, Brock. □

DUSTY RHODES
vs.
TERRY FUNK

It was an electrifying night at the Stadium. Dusty Rhodes was out for vengeance against Terry Funk. Immediately, Rhodes started beating on Funk. In the middle of the match, there was outside interference from Buggy McGraw. McGraw and Funk were beating Rhodes up pretty bad until Sweet Brown Sugar joined Rhodes and started a wild four-man brawl! After the referee climbed back into the ring, he declared a double disqualification.

ERNIE LADD
vs.
STAN HANSEN

In a nasty brawl between two 300-pound Texans, Stan Hansen and Ernie Ladd, the rule book was thrown out. Both men felt the affects of this brutal match. Deceit and illegal moves were the rule. With thousands cheering wildly, Hansen delivered his famous "lariat hold" and ended the bout with an impressive victory.

OTHER BOUTS: Mr. Wrestling II and Tommy Rich overpowered Ole Anderson and Ivan Koloff . . . Killer Karl Kox upended Ray Candy.

AUSTIN IDOL
vs.
DICK SLATER

Cruel and obnoxious Austin Idol taunted the crowd before his big match against Dick Slater. Idol doesn't like people and people don't like him. Neither did Dick Slater. Despite deafening boos, Idol stuck to his cunning, clever plan. Skillfully eluding Slater's maneuvers, Idol managed to force a disqualification.

BOB BACKLUND
vs.
PAT PATTERSON

Bob Backlund showed he could draw some of Pat Patterson's blood. Obviously out for revenge, Backlund slammed Patterson's head into the ring post. Patterson nearly bested Backlund several times. However, Backlund was up for this one. After repeated rulebreaking, the referee disqualified Patterson, enabling Backlund to retain his WWF title.

OTHER BOUTS: Larry Zbyszko used some fine maneuvers in besting Jose Estrada . . . Dominic DeNucci lost to Nikolai Volkoff . . . Ted DiBiase, Ivan Putski, and Andre the Giant toppled the three Valiant Brothers in a ferocious tag team war.

JOSE LOTHARIO
vs.
GINO HERNANDEZ

Texas' hottest feud invaded Louisiana as Gino Hernandez locked horns with Jose Lothario. Their mutual hostility was in evidence from the opening bell. Neither wrestler would ease up when inflicting pain. Horrified cries erupted from both men. Ironically, it took a brilliant maneuver to end the bout. Lothario finished off Hernandez with a flying bodypress to win the match.

OTHER BOUTS: Tank Patton stopped Billy Starr . . . Mike Bowyer halted Stan Lane . . . Mr. Wrestling II won by disqualification over Mike George.

RICHMOND, VA.

JIM BRUNZELL
vs.
KEN PATERA

A young man's dream came true this night in the Richmond Coliseum. But first, Jim Brunzell had to endure nearly 20 minutes of violent brawling with Mid-Atlantic champion Ken Patera. Suddenly, it was over. Brunzell was the new champion, sending the crowd into noisy ecstasy. But Patera was not about to relinquish his crown so easily. He blind-sided Brunzell. However, Brunzell retaliated by smashing Patera in the face with the belt.

OTHER BOUTS: Rick Steamboat won by disqualification over Jimmy Snuka . . . Ric Flair downed John Studd.

Backlund vs. Patterson:
EXCLUSIVE COVERAGE OF THE MOST
FEROCIOUS CAGE MATCH IN HISTORY!

SEPT 24 71 NYC

THERE CAN BE a majesty in horror, a magnificence in brutality. The spectator is almost ashamed of enjoying the savage spectacle. There are a few matches in wrestling history which have achieved a terrifying splendor. Bob Backlund's cage match against Pat Patterson was one such contest.

If we were really a civilized race, there would be no cage matches. It's the animal in us that feeds on the gory fury of a battle like this. Bloodlust was sated long before the brawl was over.

"I know I have to win this," Bob Backlund admitted before the match. "Patterson has made it look like he's better than me. For the sake of my title—and my pride—I've got to win this. It's funny. I'm WWF champion. I never realized being champion meant being challenger to the world.

"I'll beat him. I have to prove I'm champion. A champion always has to prove that."

The gore of a cage match didn't come as a surprise to Backlund. "If I had my way," Bob declared, "there'd be no cage matches, chain matches, or any other kind of bout where men bloody each other. Still, a champion has no choice. I've got to do it all against anyone. The champion is always at the mercy of the sport. The sport says there has to be cage matches.

"It's strange. I'm going to do my best to turn Pat Patterson into a bloody pulp. I don't like Patterson, he stands for everything I hate, but I still don't want to destroy him. He has to try to bloody me. I guess he's a captive of the sport, too.

"People keep asking me if I'm worried about being hurt. I don't think about that at all. The pressure of being champion is so great, I don't consider things

Matt Brock's PLAIN SPEAKING

MEMPHIS, TENN.: Hate to see a friendship dissolve. Never forget the time my parakeet died and I wouldn't eat anything yellow for a month. Much the same thing happened between Bill Dundee and Jerry Lawler. They were best of friends. Their tag team was renown throughout the area. Even when they didn't wrestle together, they stayed close friends. But greed has a way of cleaving friendship. Bockwinkel was coming to town. He promised to wrestle the top contender in Memphis. Bill Dundee thought he should be the one. Alas, Lawler felt it was his right to wrestle for the AWA belt. Misunderstanding led to harsh words and flying fists. They went into the ring one night and left with a hatred nothing could resolve. What a shame. And I still didn't see Dolly Parton.

RICHMOND, VA.: Jim Brunzell is the new Mid-Atlantic champion. I caught up with the joyous youngster shortly after he disposed of Ken Patera. We had a long and fascinating talk. Saying goodbye to a friend can be painful. Yet Brunzell had to leave Greg Gagne. More importantly, Brunzell had to leave the AWA. He didn't feel the future was there for him. He had to try new areas. From what I can see of fan reaction, Brunzell made the right choice. And what of Patera? His tale is a tragic one. He could have been one of the greats, yet he succumbed to greed. I wouldn't count Patera out. He's resourceful. Look for him to make a big push for Bob Backlund's WWF title.

CHICAGO, ILL.: I walk into the locker room and this pile of muscle grabs my lapel and flings me against the wall. The thud I dimly heard was my skull slamming against concrete. Last time I heard a sound like that was when someone dropped a case of Scotch. I cried on both occasions. Sensing danger, I panicked and covered my face with my hands. Once I recognized the hearty laughter, I relaxed. Just Crusher's way of saying hello. Crusher and I go back a few years. Here's a guy who takes no guff from anyone and is totally his own man. I respect that. Few wrestlers around with the guts to do what they feel is right and hang the consequences. Crusher is a man of the people. After the matches, we went to a local watering hole and recounted tales of grappling greatness. Sometime during the evening I vaguely recall a table being broken. Ah, they don't make men like Crusher anymore. Nor tables, for that matter.

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.: Came back for another look at Eddy Mansfield. Pretty boys don't impress me. As you can tell, hard-driving professionals who go out and do an honest day's work impress me. First time I saw Mansfield, his self-love annoyed me. I committed the unforgivable sin of journalism: I permitted prejudice to cloud my judgement. Mansfield's pretty damn good. He took apart a couple of guys and re-assembled them in a helluva professional way. I went back to talk to him. He's still obnoxious and egotistical. Still don't care for him. But he's a fine wrestler. □

(For years, Nick Bockwinkel and Bobby "The Brain" Heenan were synonymous with ruthless success. With Heenan plotting strategies and Bockwinkel implementing them, the AWA title seemed only a first step toward inevitable national domination. However, their violent methods ruptured the team. Heenan was banished from the AWA and formed a new home in Georgia. As for Bockwinkel, he continued his incredible championship reign. Bockwinkel, in Minneapolis, speaks to Heenan, presently in Georgia.)

NICK BOCKWINKEL:

Brain, how are you?

BOBBY HEENAN:

Good, Nick, How's life in the AWA?

NB: Rolling and swallowing everyone up.

like.
BH: Musta been a lot easier when you had Bobby Heenan thinking for you.
NB: You never thought for me.
BH: I didn't mean it like that. I was, after all, indispensable in plotting successful strategies.
NB: I'm still champ.
BH: I know, old buddy. Just that we were such a great team.

NB: Yeah, well, how's things by you?
BH: Oh, I've found some new dudes to turn into champions. You know the Heenan magic. Take a somewhat talented, ambitious wrestler and breathe genius into him.
NB: Like with me?
BH: Sure, uh, you had more talent than the average man.

What's up in the AWA?

NB: Oh, that old bum Gagne is still running amuck, boring people.
BH: I thought you'd finished him off by now.
NB: No.
BH: Oh, he is kinda greasy and slimy. I hear his kid's the same way.
NB: Worse. His kid doesn't have half the talent his father has, and that's not saying much to begin with.
BH: I got some punks down here, like this creep kid Tommy Rich.
NB: The blond?
BH: Yeah. He thinks ladies swooning for him is enough. I can't tell you how many times my main man Blackjack Lanza had pounded

"WHY I FIRED THE VALIANTS"

By Capt. Lou Albano

HAVE I GOT a story for you. As usual, it's brilliant and incisive and shocking. Typical Albano fare. Let me go back a little and talk about a recent bout involving my champions of the WWF, Jerry and John Valiant.

We were tussling with an ugly crew. I won't mention them because they make my beard twitch and my stomach rumble. As usual, our "opponents" pulled some cheap trick. They brought some kind of foreign object into the ring.

Hell, that made me sad. I had to defend my champions. Wouldn't you know it, we got disqualified. Happens all the time. A creep cheats, I disarm him and get blamed for my act of self-defense.

I've come to expect that. Little ants always try to punch holes in greatness. Not with Lou Albano. I am too great to be hurt. It's my champions I'm not sure about.

Yup, Jerry and John have gotten me disqualified one time too many. I'm angry. Something's got to be done about this.

I've talked to the Valiant Brothers. I've pleaded with them. I've done everything a manager could possibly do, and more.

The three Valiant Brothers—Jim, Jerry, and John—prepare to do battle at Madison Square Garden. Jerry and John, the WWF tag team champions, are angry with Albano for not getting them title defenses in the WWF's largest arena.

DOES WANT TO FIRE LOU ALBANO?

THE DRESSING ROOM pressure of the upcoming match. A thick, stale wave of bad vibrations circulated freely across the room. The Valiant Brothers, Jimmy, Johnny and Jerry, are generally loose, cocky, and relaxed athletes. But the WWF tag team champions are the Valiant brothers—Luscious Johnny and Gentleman Jerry. So where does this leave the third Valiant brother, Handsome Jimmy? According to wrestling's hottest rumor, it leaves him alone, frustrated, and with one thought in his mind—to fire the man who he feels has betrayed him, Captain Lou Albano.

competitors. But he had not yet told the Valiants which two would join him. Jimmy, Jimmy and Jerry sat nervously, awaiting their leader's decision. "Okay, it will be me, Johnny and Jerry tonight," the Captain finally said. "Jimmy, get back in your street clothes." Jimmy Valiant reluctantly dressed as his two brothers and the Captain, briefly discussed strategy, but it was like trying to hide a canoe

Back in July, INSIDE WRESTLING gave the first warnings of a Valiant-Albano rift (left). The Valiants doubleteam Larry Zbyszko (below).

The tempestuous partnership between Lou Albano and WWF tag team champions Jerry and John Valiant may be drawing to a close. Friction and outright hostility has surfaced. A violent difference of opinion threatens to drive a permanent wedge into their relationship. Albano tries to explain what happened

But it's got to change. We can't keep getting disqualified.

And I have to listen to their complaints. Can you bust? The Valiants whine and moan that they never get big title defenses at the Garden. I work my fingers to the bone and this is how they return my affection. The Lumberjacks weren't good enough. They didn't live up to the high standards a Lou Albano champion should have. It was inevitable they'd lose to jokes like DeNucci and Zbyszko. I was proud when the Valiants won the WWF title.

Who masterminded it? Who is the guiding genius behind their daily struggles? Who fights off and out-wits pasta-face Sammartino, and pimple-face Backlund, both of whom want me stopped? Who risks his life dealing with slimy two-faced twerps like Ivan Putski and Andre the Giant?

Me. Captain Lou Albano. And this is the gratitude I get. Could you believe this?

So I sat Jerry and John down one day and we had ourselves a little talk. I wanted it to be nice. Fans know what a kind, considerate man I am. Well, let's say Jerry and John weren't so nice. Or even polite. They were rude. I take guff from no one.

You fans remember when that ugly behemoth Andre sneak-attacked me? I was protecting my men and that big blue whale leaps in and tries to beat me up. Hah, it'll take a better man than Andre the Ginzo to beat up Albano. Fans may have seen Andre running away after I whipped his face.

I don't mention this to pat myself on the back, though I do deserve it. I only mention this to show what lengths I will go to for my wrestlers. I'll bet no one ever heard the time I knocked Sammartino cold with a right.

Calamari-face made some snide remark about Jerry Valiant. Other managers may be sniveling cruds and laugh off a vicious remark like that. Not Captain Lou. I told Bruno to apologize or I'd wipe the floor with him. Sammartino knows what the floor feels like. He's spent three-quarters of his career on the canvas. Well that hairy stuffed shell wouldn't apologize. I'm a gentleman. I told

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Each day, out of the thousands of letters we receive, hundreds of them are from fans asking the whereabouts of their favorite wrestler. In this special column, we will try to answer the questions you ask the most!

JIM BRUNZELL

Brunzell's initial foray into the Mid-Atlantic area was a brilliant success. It's hard to quibble with a major title, which Brunzell won from Ken Patera in a brutal bout. So Brunzell will be in the Mid-Atlantic area for a while. A long while, he hopes.

MR. WRESTLING II

The masked man is still traveling between Georgia and Louisiana. When II first announced he would be leaving Georgia on a sporadic basis, fans protested. While they haven't grown accustomed to II in other areas, they realize a valuable commodity must be shared. And treasured.

STEVE TRAVIS

The WWF Rookie of the Year is presently amazing Florida wrestling fans with his sensational scientific maneuvers. It didn't take Travis long to become embroiled in several heated feuds, notably with Don Muraco, King Curtis, and the newest Japanese rulebreakers, Mr. Hito and Mr. Sakurada.

KEN PATERA

Patera has never concealed his disdain for WWF champion Bob Backlund. Perhaps it's jealousy or pure contempt, but Patera has vowed to exterminate Backlund and claim the WWF championship. Patera is in the area playing his own brand of evil.

Rhodes."

And Dusty said . . .

"Bruno is a nice man. I don't avoid him."

I must say I believed neither. At least fully. From what I could detect, they did respect each other. But there was a fear. A worry that a confrontation might cause undue friction and might lead to . . .

Yes, neither Sammartino nor Rhodes wants to wrestle each other. They're afraid that a chance meeting—even in a hallway—could lead to an inevitable friendship, and a public demand for a match.

They're not afraid of each other. They're afraid of what it would do to wrestling.

"You know, I don't want a feud with Rhodes," Bruno said. "Once you start with someone, fans expect you will keep fighting them."

But what about teaming?

"Me and Bruno wouldn't go together," Rhodes said. "You have two excellent wrestlers, man, and I don't think we could harmonize. Our styles are too different."

"You know how things get out of hand," Dusty continued. "I have my own commitments and so does Bruno. If we ever formed a tag

Bruno Sammartino explained that the reasons he and Dusty Rhodes never teamed is because he did not want false rumors to be spread after the wrestlers' individual commitments forced the inevitable split.

team, it would hurt our careers."

Sammartino agreed.

"I have trouble teaming with people," Bruno said, smiling. "Maybe I'm not the type of guy who should have a steady partner. I could see what would happen if me and the Dream teamed up.

"We would work well together and beat up some people. Who knows, we might even win a title. Then our individual commitments would interfere and we'd have to break up," Sammartino continued.

"You know how people talk and gossip. They'd say it was because we were feuding or something. I don't want to start anything. That's why I've been avoiding Rhodes and why he's been avoiding me.

"We respect each other too much."

I felt a great crime had been perpetrated. Two men with an obvious respectful attitude were being denied the opportunity to meet and shake hands. I pressed both of them into coming into the hallway and meeting.

Unless I'm mistaken, it was the start of a beautiful friendship. ☐ into her blue eyes. I released her hand and spoke. "There's really nothing to be nervous about. Most of the wrestlers are really good to talk to. Even the rulebreakers are full of things to say and will generally cooperate."

"It sounds like you know what you're talking about," she said as she flashed a broad smile. (Ah, my chance to impress.)

"May I," I took the magazine from her lap, flipped to the staff box, and pointed out my name.

"Associate Editor. Wow!" she exclaimed. She looked at me inquisitively. "Gee, can I ask you a favor?"

"Name it," I said as my imagination began to run amok.

"Do you think you could sit with me during the matches. That way you can tell me what you know about the matches and the wrestlers. It'll make my article so much better."

"Sounds okay to me," I said coolly. "And then after the matches we can go out for a drink and we can discuss your angle."

"You'd do that for me?" she asked.

Why would my ears lie to me? They never have before? "It would be my pleasure," I replied, hiding my astonishment.

"Saks!" a deep, graveled voice called from down the corridor. I looked up and saw Greg Valentine marching double-time right to where we were sitting.

"Saks!" he screamed. "What kind of crap is your magazine printing. Your ratings are screwed up, buddy."

"Hey, Greg," I pleaded. "If you've got a gripe, I'd be happy to listen to you. But not now, okay?" I nodded in the direction of the young lady.

He had no sympathy for my situation. "How the hell can you rate me any lower than number one? I'm the best. The best! I'm number one and should be rated there."

He grabbed me by the collar and lifted me off the bench. He spoke softly, but only about an inch from my face. "I'm not going to remind you again."

He threw me back to the bench. "Who was that," Elizabeth asked.

"That was Greg Valentine," I answered. "One of the toughest, meanest, most vicious . . ."

I stopped listing Valentine's attributes and looked at Elizabeth. She began to smile at me and we both started laughing. "Are you sure you want to do this article?" I asked. □ dous entertainment potential. However, Dusty has rejected all offers.

"I appreciate all those show biz folks comin' 'round and waving all kinds of money in my face" Rhodes replied, "but to be honest, I dance like a drunken sailor, I sing like a sick seal, and I never remember the punch lines to jokes. I'll stay with wrestling, but maybe when I retire, I'll play the night club circuit."

INJURY REPORT

The neck of tough prelim wrestler FRANK WILLIAMS was broken by a Swede Hanson piledriver! The ugly incident was as senseless as the smile on Hanson's face as he watched Williams carted off on a stretcher. Several scientific stars have vowed to gain revenge for Williams. Rumors are circulating that Hanson is traveling with two full-time bodyguards.

HARLEY RACE is suffering from a corn on the little toe of his right foot. While the corn is not considered a major injury, it bothers the NWA champion.

"It hurts me to put my boots on, and the annoying pain is starting to get to me mentally," said Race. Maybe Harley should remove the corn with the same razor blade he uses on his challengers!

That's all for this month. Catch you later. □ gym was deserted. The usual clanks and groans heard from the weight room were nonexistent. It made for an eerie presence.

"I hope you've got some time," the lieutenant told Rich. "It takes some people a long time to catch on. Others never do."

"I've got time," Rich said. "This is important to me."

The session took eight hours. Eight intensive hours with no breaks. "It's going to take about four more sessions before you've got it down pat," said the lieutenant. "But I must say, that you are doing very, very well."

"It's not me," said Rich, a smile crossing his face. "It's my teacher . . . thanks."

The lieutenant had given Rich a very valuable lesson. A lesson he has taught before, but only to a select few in the Marine Corps. A lesson that Rich thought could help take the NWA championship from Harley Race.

Rich had the basis for the application of the Manchurian sleeper hold that the lieutenant had learned while stationed outside of Manchuria. Although the lieutenant knew he was disobeying orders by passing the knowledge along to Rich, he felt the cause made it justifiable.

It is commonly known throughout the profession that Harley Race is susceptible to the sleeper hold. And with five lessons in hand, Rich would probably have the best sleeper in the sport.

Rich paid to keep Neil's Gym exclusively his for the next four days. On the fifth day, he stepped into the ring against the NWA champion. And he was ready.

"You want to know the truth," said a watery-eyed Tommy Rich after the match, "I was never more ready for anyone in my life.

"I really thought this would be the day. Just knowing that I'd have that sleeper put me on such a high. It gave me so much confidence. Everything went as I planned. Everything!"

Well, almost everything. Rich went on the offensive right at the bell, and lost only for brief moments. Rich whipped the champion into the ropes and backdropped him firmly to the canvas on the rebound. He lifted Race to his feet immediately and flung him into the ropes again. This time, Race was greeted by the Manchurian sleeper on the rebound. He would not escape the hold on his own.

He was saved by the bell. The time limit. Something Rich and his mentor did not consider. Race was going under when the time limit bell ended the match. It was just a matter of time before he was unconscious.

It seems to be just a matter of time before Rich is champion. □

Captain Lou Albano claims to be the brain behind the success of the Valiant brothers. According to Albano, the plans he devises for the champions are followed to perfection, but he is never given proper credit. Albano must be praised to feel secure.

As for the Valiants, the influence of Albano made them uneasy. As John admitted, "We're at our best with Albano. It shouldn't be like that. We should be at our best by ourselves. I don't like needing someone. I like Albano, but I don't like his influence. We'll tolerate him because he makes us better. Still, he'd better not forget we're the ones who really do the work."

Albano is used to giving orders and having them followed. The Valiants never take orders. Jim Valiant and Albano had a special relationship that made the team of Jim and John Valiant work well under Albano. Neither John nor Jerry has that special chemistry with Albano. They're like businessmen who don't trust each other but are making too much money to go their separate ways.

If money was as important to the Valiants or Albano as they claim, the partnership would go on forever. There may not be enough money in the world to keep them together. More important than riches is pride. Albano demands his wrestlers follow orders. The Valiants believe they make all final decisions. Never has success brought so little happiness.

Those who knew the situation weren't surprised when the flare-up occurred. Neither was there much surprise that it occurred in public. The Valiants and Albano needed to show everyone who held the power in their relationship. Unhappily, all it betrayed was that nobody could control the situation.

The Valiants and Albano are locked in a struggle nobody can win. The Valiants will never fully trust Albano. Lou will never tolerate his tactics being regarded as mere suggestions. They may stay together for a while longer, but they will never reach the heights of greatness that seemed to be theirs for the asking.

It's no use to think of what might have been. For the team to succeed, everyone involved would have to be very different people. If The Valiants could follow orders, chances are good they wouldn't be as great a manager.

For several matches, the Valiant brothers under Lou Albano achieved greatness. For that, all those who love wrestling should be grateful. ☐

Backlund vs. Patterson:

like injury. The importance of keeping the belt makes everything else seem secondary."

Even Pat Patterson can't hide his worry when confronted with a cage match.

"Once the match starts," he said, "there's too much going on to worry. It's the waiting before that gets you. It's the memory of previous matches that starts eating away at your nerve. You don't really feel the pain until the next day. Then you get the dizzy spells, aching muscles, and the pain of stitched flesh healing. It hurts so much you swear you'll never do it again. Then the opportunity comes and you take it. Maybe it's the kicks of seeing that clown Backlund covered with blood that makes me do it. Yeah, I want to see him covered with blood."

The night of the match, both men appeared nervous. They knew a cage match promises the possibility that a career would be over. It's too easy to slip off the top of the cage and topple to the concrete. A broken leg that never mends, muscle tears that never heal, even a cracked skull, all are risked in a cage match. Backlund has been in relatively few of these bouts and was not sure about his strategies. Patterson was a veteran of

SPECIAL OFFER TO OUR CUSTOMERS

VERY RARE BACK ISSUES TO COMPLETE YOUR COLLECTIONS-$5 per copy

We receive many requests from collectors all over the world for back issues which were sold out long ago. Some collectors offered as much as $25 for a single rare back issue. Unfortunately, we could not comply because not even one copy remained.

But here is some good news. We recently consolidated our warehouses and uncovered a small number of copies of some issues which had been sold out for years. Now we are offering these extremely rare issues, on a FIRST COME FIRST SERVE BASIS, for $5 per copy. These copies will not last long, so we caution you to order immediately to avoid being disappointed. Not all these copies are in perfect condition. Some have soiled backs or marred covers and frayed edges. But they are still very rare collectors' items, well worth $5 a copy.

These are the issues available at this time in very limited quantities:

Backlund vs. Patterson:

these bouts and knew exactly what to expect. That fear ate into his marrow. For different reasons, they were two very worried men.

The bell sounded. The two men stormed from their corners. The strategy of each was to end the bout as quickly as possible. There was less chance of serious injury that way.

There was the slap of flesh upon flesh as the two powerful athletes locked in battle. For the first few minutes, the action was so furious it was impossible to tell who was absorbing the most punishment. With increased ferocity, the brawlers hurled each other into the cage. The metal cage shook from the force of their collision. Too soon, the ring began to be speckled with scarlet. Both men were bleeding profusely. Their faces were masks of gore.

When a man feels his own blood warm upon his body, a terror fills him. He can continue his ordeal but can never shake that special terror. Even though bloodied, Backlund and Patterson battled undeterred. Yet, somehow, a spectator knew the terror had them.

Patterson was the first to try to escape his prison. A forearm smash sent Backlund reeling.

With a magnificent leap, Patterson bounded up the cage. He was grasping the top rail when Backlund managed to drag him down. The two bodies crashed upon the canvas.

Again and again, one man managed to climb the cage only to be brought down. As the battle wore on, only the strong could witness the carnage. Each man suffered a brutal pummeling. Their movements became sluggish, desperate, determined to end the agony quickly.

Then Patterson brought out his brass knuckles. Since there is no referee in a cage match, it was up to Backlund to disarm his foe. After a furious exchange where Backlund took armed punches to the ribcage and jaw, Bob managed to grab the knuckles away. His first instinct was to throw them away. Then, he stuck his fingers into the knuckles and started swinging. Patterson went reeling. A cruel grin spread across Bob's bloody face. Then he hurled the weapon from the ring.

Bloodier, in more pain, the two men struggled. Finally, Patterson was smashed to the far end of the ring. With Backlund's last bit of strength, the champion stumbled toward the cage door. The referee at ringside opened the door and Backlund tumbled out. The battered, weary, bloodied, bruised grappler was everything bad but beaten.

Backlund made his way back to the dressing room, the belt firmly around his waist. He was still champion. The crowd gave him a standing ovation.

Later, after the doctor stitched his wounds, Backlund lay back on the training table. Staring into space, he muttered, "The horror. The horror."

No one had to ask what he meant. ☐

MATT'S THE MOST

I subscribe to both INSIDE WRESTLING and THE WRESTLER. I really look forward to receiving both of them every month. What I really enjoy about INSIDE WRESTLING is reading the column by Matt Brock. He really knows how to make a story interesting. I'm not saying that I don't like the other columns, I do, but Matt Brock is the best in my opinion. The way he writes about a hangover and then glides into a story about Masked Superstar is a refreshing change of pace. Matt Brock is the greatest!

TIM WARGO

REVEAL YOURSELF

I think it's high time that Mil Mascaras took off his mask and showed his face to the public. I absolutely love the man. He is one of the greatest wrestlers in the ring. He combines speed and strength better than anyone. And he's got such a great body. He must be so handsome. Please Mil, take it off.

him to apologize. I gave him another chance. He still wouldn't.

I decked him. He was out cold for a couple of minutes. I think Howdy Doody Backlund revived him. I didn't turn around. I was too busy wiping the grease off my knuckles.

I defend my boys and they turn around and complain. I don't want to put them down, but when I let them go the first time, they had to work as plumber's assistants until I resurrected them.

The Valiants went down the tubes once. They can easily slide right back down the same hole a second time. All that stands between the Valiants and oblivion of my genius.

I have made the Valiants what they are today. They must listen and obey my orders, or I'll drop them and find someone else.

I wouldn't want to do that. They're good guys. As long as they listen to the Captain, of course. □

FOR THE FIRST TIME!!

Now—enjoy a life of unbelievable riches, lasting love and constant protection with the secrets in this startling WITCH BOOK—

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT

Whatever it is you need or want, Witchcraft can get it for you quickly, easily, and automatically, say these experts. You'll discover how it can bring abundant and overflowing wealth, find or bring back a lover, ward off evil influences, and much more—step-by-step in plain English, with complete easy-to-follow instructions!

Yes... Witchcraft! Every time you hear the word it brings with it the feelings of deep occult secrets—secrets that you would like to know so that your life can be better; so that your enemies will stop bothering you; so that serenity, love, power and comfort can be yours!

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT lays bare these secrets for the first time! Do you want a bank account bursting at the seams with money? A love life that would make a sultan envious? Supreme power to crush your enemies and reward your friends? What would it be worth to you to utter a simple incantation that would cause any pain to vanish? Or say another, and immediately recover some lost object?

What would it be worth to you to fly through time and space, on astral wings, as Witches do... go wherever you wish... do whatever you wish... without being detected... watch the antics of others behind closed doors... hear private conversations... make time run forward or backward... read tomorrow's newspaper in a "black mirror"... find out what really happened in history... make your face old or young at will!

BRINGS AUTOMATIC ASSURED SUCCESS!

Witchcraft can bring your heart's desire! You can use it to heal someone, influence the boss to do what you want, or make someone stop bothering you! It's easy! The easiest thing in the world! You don't have to be wealthy or super-intelligent to get started! Thousands of ordinary people all over the world are using Witchcraft Power right now!

Witches have known for centuries that people are scared of them and their powers! And rightly so! NOW YOU CAN SHARE THE SAME POWER that gives you—literally—life and death control over other persons! Is someone bothering you? No problem at all, with Magic Witchcraft. For example, there is a spell called the "Cross Not My Path" ritual, for people who are having neighbor trouble. When you use it, you know you will never again have trouble with this neighbor!

With these amazing Witchcraft secrets, other people will look up to you—in awe—you'll automatically dazzle others with your power to make things happen at your will, you'll be Master of your destiny, and never have to apologize to anyone for anything!

Whatever you want or need, whatever frustration is bothering you, Witchcraft will help you. It is not evil—nor is it Black Magic. Like electricity, it is simply a power given by nature for the use of men, to make life easier.

You'll see how to get paid without working... how to get expensive clothes and furs FREE... how to get a first-class plane seat FREE... how to vacation at the finest hotels, motels, pools and pleasure palaces, start living like a millionaire as Witches do!

AMAZING TECHNIQUE HAS HELPED THOUSANDS!

Witchcraft secrets like these can make you rich faster than anything else in the world! Here's how others have used them to make

Now! Let This Amazing Witch Book Bring You INFINITE WEALTH, FINE POSSESSIONS, A COMFORTABLE NEW HOME, FINANCIAL SECURITY, LOVE, CONTROL OVER OTHERS, And More—Easily And Automatically!

For centuries, these Witchcraft secrets were hushed up, so that those in power could stay in power! Feudal lords kept their bondsmen as slaves. Factory owners kept their employees in dreaded sweatshops, because these masters knew they must not allow their workers to realize that they need not labor their lives away. Witchcraft was suppressed because it works! Not because of any "evil" in it. If it hadn't worked, no one would have worried about it. If you want to gain power, all you need is this amazing Witch Book!

By using these Witchcraft secrets, you too can change your life and gain health, wealth, someone to love—or anything else—surely, swiftly and automatically!

• THE WITCH'S MONEY JAR!—You'll discover the secret of the Witch's Money Jar, a mysterious jar that fills with money—whenever you want or need it! All you need is some water, pennies, and an ordinary jar or bowl! You'll be amazed at the speed with which it fills with money—a seemingly endless supply of needed cash!

• THE WITCH'S MONEY MAGNET!—You'll see how to magnetize a dollar bill so that it multiplies! All you need to make your own Witch's Money Magnet is a dollar bill, a green candle, and the words on page 38. Once you do this, your dollar will double and keep doubling! You'll enjoy glittering luxuries, and start living like a millionaire, as Witches do!

• THE WITCH'S BLACK MIRROR!—Just as your TV set has been called your "window on the world," so the Black Mirror is your "window on the psychic world"—the world of the unknown. Making your own personal Black Mirror takes only a few moments and can open the way to unguessable visions. All you need is a bowl of water, some ink, and the chant on page 23. Suddenly you will see scenes from other places and times, or any scene you wish to see!

IN THIS WITCH BOOK YOU'LL DISCOVER...

- How to Cast Spells that Really Work!
- Your Magic Window on the World!
- Personal Protection!
- Telepathy Made Easy!
- Influencing Others to Do Your Bidding!
- Controlling a Conversation!
- The Technique of Silent Persuasion!
- Using Witchcraft to Find Friends!
- How to Find the Lover You Want!
- How to Bring Your Perfect Mate to You!
- How to Dominate Others!
- Witchcraft Power for Money!
- Witchcraft Power to Make You Irresistible to Others!
- Spells for Finding Lost Objects!
- How to Always Win with Luck Spells!
- More Power for Bigger Goals!
- Inhaling Cosmic Energy!
- Recharging Your Cosmic Batteries!
- Raising Your Vital Energy Level!
- How to Keep Evil Forces Away!

miracles happen in their daily lives!

You'll see how Vern, a man who likes to give a lot of expensive parties, was always short of cash until he discovered the amazing WITCH'S MONEY JAR—now all he has to do is dip in, for it brings him an endless flow of cash! Evelyn, a waitress, was always lending money to friends, and was always broke. Finally, she placed her last dollar on the table, and worked the MONEY MAGNET SPELL over it. All at once, dozens of people who had borrowed money from her, rushed to pay her back!

Hank was perpetually broke. One night he got together with some friends, and they decided to cast the MONEY SPELL. The very next day, Hank received in the mail a check for some $250 worth of insurance. (He had never heard of the company that sent the check, he was not insured with them, and had never even made a claim—but he accepted the money.) Another member of the group that used the spell, a 40-year-old secretary, received an automobile as a gift! All the other members of the group received amazing windfalls of money, as well! You'll see how Dexter, a retiree, lives RENT FREE and receives $200 a week at the age of 78, with a secret you'll find in this Witch Book! You'll see how Claudine, a secretary, was able to wear the finest, most expensive furs—FREE—and spend weekends at an expensive ski lodge in the mountains, where she met a wonderful man! How Ruth L., a widow—with nothing but a small pension, and a little savings—received her dream house, by using a simple 5-minute ritual on page 38 of this book!

Using the same Witchcraft secrets, YOU can achieve peace of mind and freedom from money worries for the rest of your life!

YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF AS WITCHES DO!

Feeling sick today? Plagued by a lot of troublesome illnesses? Perhaps some relative is sick and constantly demanding your attention? Or perhaps it is even a pet that needs help? With the MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT, you can cure anything, say authors Gavin and Yvonne Frost. "In our experience... we have not found a single incurable disease!"

• ANDY DISSOLVES A GALLSTONE!—Andy M. developed gallstones. When his illness became too troublesome to ignore, he went to a doctor. Urine tests revealed that he was chronically alkaline. His body was badly out of balance. Using this Witchcraft method to restore balance to the mind and body—in a short while, X-rays showed that he had no more gallstones! Andy never again suffered the excruciating pain of passing stones!

In the same way, say Gavin and Yvonne Frost, almost all illness can be prevented. You are actually employing an ancient Witchcraft method to remove diseased tissue! Even if you do not have any belief in the results, the power will work for you!

One woman, who had been in a wheelchair for 26 years, due to polio and arthritis, used the Witchcraft healing method, and reported that she had no pain and could walk and garden again! A man reported that his son's deep 3rd degree burns miraculously healed overnight!

• SO SIMPLE A CHILD USES IT!—A 4-year-old girl asked if she could try to heal a man who was limping—due to a torn ligament—with this simple Witchcraft healing method. In a matter of moments, she started her chant, laying her hands on the weak ankle. The man was miraculously cured! To skeptics, this should be convincing PROOF that anyone can use it!

AMAZING POWER CAN BE YOURS!

Whether you want infinite wealth, or just a comfortable new home, financial security, fine possessions, love, companionship, new health and vigor, power to control others, secret knowledge, protection from evil, or anything else, the magic power of Witchcraft can bring it to you quickly, easily and automatically! It's the easiest thing in the world!

• HOW TO SEE INTO THE FUTURE!—Would you like to be able to see the future? You CAN with the magic Black Mirror you'll see how to make on page 23. All you need is some ink and a bowl of water. Then use the chant on this page, and you will be able to see many things. One man uses it to read tomorrow's newspaper. YOU can use it to check the stock market or that important horse race!

Booklet How to build a more Powerful body

Here's just a few of the muscle groups improved by the Universal Bodybuilding system.....

- Upper arms (biceps and triceps)---add size and strength to the upper arms.
- Forearms (flexors and extensors)---improve and develop your grip.
- Chest (pectorals)---develop and strengthen the chest muscles.
- Stomach (abdominals)---trim the waist area.
- Thighs (quadriceps)---develop your thighs to their fullest potential.
- Calf (gastrocnemius)---improve the shape of your lower legs.

GET INTO SHAPE

ONLY FOR THE HEALTHY!
Before embarking on this bodybuilding program or any other building physical endeavor, be sure to check with your physician for his okay. This course specializes in developing the body to its maximum potential and should only be attempted by those in good health.

Most men never develop themselves to their fullest potential. Why? Probably because they've never come across or taken a training program quite like the one we offer at Universal Bodybuilding.

Most men wouldn't want to be as heavily muscled as the model shown -- not that everyone has this type of potential -- but most men would like to be a lot better than what they are! You have it within yourself to develop to your fullest potential!

There's really no reason for not being in shape-- it certainly doesn't take that much time! All you have to do is follow our program three times a week. You will soon get results that you can see and feel! The satisfaction that comes from knowing you're working toward being the very best you can be is hard to beat!

Not only will the program help get you into shape, it will improve and increase your strength as well. This is a definite plus for those who want to step up their strength and endurance for sports!

Also, don't forget the psychological benefits of exercise. As you get into the habit of exercising, you'll have an increased awareness of self, and being more in touch with your body.

WHY LET YOURSELF DETERIORATE?

Face it! Unless you do something about it, your body will eventually become out of shape. As you get older, it is especially difficult to remain as active as you would like to be.

If you're out of shape, the combination of bodybuilding and diet can rid you of excess fat and flab. You'll see miracles performed on your waistline!

If you're at least 18 years of age, we'll be glad to send you a colorful booklet. Absolutely free! Simply send us your name, address and zip code.
